1. Mike is My friend. He is in passionate pursuit of Me. [Galiga]

2. Phyllis doesn't yet know what I have in store for her, but she will soon, and happy she will be. [Sims]

3. Ed is of Me and healed he will be. [Arness]

4. Craig will teach and lead leadership of leadership. [Wilson]

5. Minnie will flourish and her gifts come out of her mightily, for they are My gifts and ready must they be—great demands on her gifts. Children, children, children—smiles, joy, laughter, fulfillment, friendships—Ted, where much given, much required. [Cottingham]

6. Barbi is breaking forth as the noon day sun. [Cottingham]

7. Amy will come and at peace she will be. [Cottingham]

8. Christopher, oh Christopher, oh sensitive heart like Mine—much strength, much maturing, great gentleness, a man after Me. [Cottingham]

9. Much fun at Regent, foundations laid and re-laid. Much strength, much fun, freedomizing relationships for future permanent. Great leadership, great leadership, strong healthy leadership, prayer warriors some are who know Me well. I delight in them and where you are going and all of you going in Me. So much change, so much change, so many ready, few not ready, many ready.

10. Joel is Mine and the passion you have seen in him for Me, in the past, will pale compared to the joyous understanding I am overlaying on him, in him, to pursue with passion more, greater, and joy-filled pouring over to all. [Budd]

11. Tim is waiting, waiting, waiting. [C]

12. Astrid is My shooting star—a comet, a glower—and she glows in Me and will provide light at speeds of Me, for many, walking in halls she never expected, and walking with those not expected, but all of Me. Astrid is Mine and leadership is she—leadership, a leadership birther, a leadership birth mother who is moving forward in Me. Oh freedom, oh mountains conquered, oh mountain conqueror. Favor, favor, great favor. [Sylvester]

13. Pauline is Mine and has yet to see how her voice will go the world over teaching that which she has yet to teach—fully, completely. Record her all and available-ize it to all: her, her story, her travels, her trials, her victories, her defeats, her life, her healing, her traveling for Me in dimensions she expected not. [Okoroji]

14. Enniola is power.
15. Victor is My lamb, My lamb in training. You see, you saw—what I will do with Victor—flinging Victor I am, I will, when he is ready. [O]

16. Rev. Blount, oh the laughter, oh the laughter, oh the laughter he will laugh with, powerfully enjoying Me as I come upon him and show him realms he can operate in, if he chooses, that will exponentialize and freedomize and globalize him. Humility—greatness. Humility, humility. Tell him I love his laugh and to laugh more and let Me laugh with him, together, expanding him and joyfully rollicking over territories taken back for Me.

17. Overseas much, home little, get ready.

18. His pastor welcomes you for you walk in honor to all and love and respect. Your honor and love and respect of all, will open many doors for you, many hearts, much fruit.

19. Many classrooms I have for My people, many words, many experiences, but Ted, many friendships.

20. I am friendshipping My people like never before, breaking down the bars of iron and gates of brass that they think are there between each other—vaporizing the hardest to understand separators which islands make.

21. Oh Ted, networks, networks, networks of multi-level friendships working in concert and collaboration to create and fulfill My words and the seeking hearts.

22. Teach My people My perspective on raising up a whole new generation of generation-understanding, powerful, non-separators who can see me and hear Me and discern Me and prophetably prophet. Raise up the generation that will apostle-ize apostles, not separating apostles and prophets from craftsmen and creators in other crafts.

23. Pull on your gifts, develop in Me and framework lay for the foundation of future understanding for My family to work fully for Me and with each other.

24. Cast not the error-filled prophet into outer darkness, but teach, train, and mature. Value the passion, teach the teachable, train the trainable, mature the maturable, and Ted, the arrogant others leave to Me and My wisdom.

25. You're not perfect but you're trying hard and arrogant you aren't.

26. Shrink not back from names and places and events foretold through your hand, your pen and ink, your voice, for I will speak and you will mature in the ability for Me to speak in multiple areas, dimensions, planes, and knowledge, wisdom, and understanding will increase.

27. Fear Me not, come close, closer, closer, and I will give you more, more for My seekers, more for My hungry and thirsty, more for those searching in gift-constricted environments who speak of freedom and know nothing of its operation.

28. Mature Ted, mature. Much maturing before you, much learning at My knee, with Me alone, and in solitude with Me alone, such excitement, such passion, such invisible exchange, interchange, and interexchange of hearts bursting forth, Ted. I will mature, I will mature and I will mature many.

29. Tell My people to enjoy more of My creation, enjoy more music, pipe organ music to music through pipes and strings and things you've never seen and know nothing of—all honoring Me. Stuck not be, burst forth in creativity and pull My people from their rut-driven comfort zones of complacency and rote actions from decades to decades.

30. Shall I say again, I move, I change, I create? A thousand thousands, ad infinitum.

31. Enjoy your day and the new words I bring you in new dishes at different places at My table.
Many new foods, afraid not be.
Many new dishes and positions soon, enjoy them all.

32. Log and journal and record and enjoy the help of others reproducing all I do in you, for you, for your family, all for My family,
Your open book family for My open book family.

33. Open book each other with joy and laughter and power and victory.
